

CCHS Symposium: Pasadena

The Pasadena you've never seen before

February 23-26

Program Highlights

Ever met a rocket scientist? Have you been on a behind the scenes tour of the Gamble House? Or be one of the first to tour the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals! The Pasadena Symposium is focused on the Pasadena that's not in the tour guides! The symposium will feature workshops, tours, lectures and discussion that tell the story of one of Southern California's most dynamic communities.

About the Symposium:

Symposiums are meant to share the story of the communities we visit. Symposiums are meant to bring California's historical community together. Symposiums are meant to be fun!

At the Symposium, we will visit sites, we will have a bus tour on Saturday. On Friday, we will be at two locations (one the hotel and the Pasadena History Museum). Fees include most meals (no breakfast, but dinner and most lunches) and all the tour prices.

Program Highlights:

- History of Pasadena, What You Can't Find in the Guide Book
- Pasadena History Museum tours
- JPL Speakers
- Dinner at the Gamble House
- 9th Circuit Courthouse Tour

Richard H. Chambers U.S. Court of Appeals is an historic building originally constructed as a Spanish Colonial Revival style resort known as the Vista del Arroyo Hotel and Bungalows.
